Pursuant to RCW 48.31.010, on May 19, 2005 Symetra Financial Corporation (Symetra), Symetra Life Insurance Company (SLIC) and American States Life Insurance Company (ASLIC) filed an application with the Insurance Commissioner (Commissioner) for approval of its proposal to merge SLIC with its wholly-owned subsidiary, ASLIC. Symetra is a privately held holding company domiciled in Delaware, with its executive offices located in Redmond, Washington. Through its operating subsidiaries, Symetra provides life insurance and annuities, group insurance, employee benefits and retirement plans throughout the United States. Symetra owns 100% of all issued and outstanding stock of SLIC. SLIC is a Washington domestic stock life insurance company which is also admitted to do business in the District of Columbia and all states except New York. SLIC owns 100% of all issued and outstanding stock of ASLIC, totaling 2,500,000 shares. ASLIC is an Indiana domestic stock life insurance company which is also admitted to do business in the District of Columbia and all states except New York.

In its application, Symetra, SLIC and ASLIC advise that ASLIC currently has approximately 123,000 life insurance policies issued to Washington residents, and ceased selling new life insurance policies in October 2004.

Should this proposal be approved, upon the effective date of the merger, all authorized capital stock of ASLIC, currently owned by SLIC, and all rights in respect of such shares, shall be cancelled as of the effective date of the merger, the certificates representing such shares shall be surrendered and cancelled, ASLIC shall cease to exist and SLIC shall be the surviving corporation. Further, should this proposal be approved, all rights and obligations of ASLIC shall become the rights and obligations of SLIC. All annuity and insurance policies, of whatever kind, issued by ASLIC and in force at the effective date of the merger shall become the policies of SLIC. All obligations of ASLIC to policyholders, of whatever kind, shall become obligations of SLIC. Symetra, SLIC and ASLIC further assert in its application that current policyholders of ASLIC will experience absolutely no change in the terms and conditions of their parties, or in any values they hold under those policies, when ASLIC is replaced by SLIC at the effective date of the merger and that ASLIC policyholders will receive an Assumption Certificate in the form or substantially the form which has been filed herein.

A merger involving a domestic Washington insurer is controlled by RCW 48.31.010, 48.31B.015 and 48.31B.020. Pursuant to RCW 48.31.010, a letter describing the proposed merger and the entities involved, in detail, the Plan of Merger and the Draft Articles of Merger were submitted to the Commissioner on May 17, 2005, and was filed herein on May 19, 2005. Pursuant to RCW 48.31.010, a domestic insurer may merge with another insurer if, after a hearing, it is found: 1) that the plan of merger has been submitted to and is approved by the Commissioner in advance of the merger; 2) that adequate notice of the hearing has been given; 3) that the proposed merger is fair, equitable, and consistent with law, including, but not limited to, (a) evidence that such merger would not result in antitrust concerns, and (b) the
